

University of South Australia

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to the official launch of the

Open Door Health Clinic

at The Salvation Army Adelaide, at 2pm on Wednesday 3rd May at 277 Pirie Street, Adelaide.

The Open Door Health Clinic provides quality physiotherapy and podiatry services to adults in crisis or experiencing homelessness in South Australia. Designed to address individual needs, we deliver hands-on quality care to help restore, maintain and promote optimal function.

Free services will be provided by professionally supervised final year undergraduate physiotherapy and podiatry students from the University of South Australia and/or fully qualified volunteer physiotherapists and podiatrists.

The Open Door Health Clinic is an initiative between the University of South Australia, The Salvation Army and SOS Health Foundation.

Please RSVP for catering purposes to Gail Gibson on (08) 8302 0469 or by email gail.gibson@unisa.edu.au by Friday 28th April 2017
